Begin with a visit to the majestic Hassan II Mosque, one of the largest in the world, perched dramatically over the Atlantic Ocean. Afterwards, stroll through the charming Habous Quarter, where traditional architecture meets French colonial influences. Continue to the Central Market, alive with local products and bustling energy. The day ends with a scenic drive along the Corniche, Casablanca's coastal promenade, where you can unwind at Ain Diab beach and take in the ocean breeze.

DAY 3 Casablanca to Chefchaouen

After breakfast, set off on a scenic drive north through Morocco's captivating countryside, passing fertile valleys and traditional rural villages. Your destination is Chefchaouen, often called the Blue Pearl of Morocco. Nestled in the Rif Mountains, this town is famous for its blue-washed walls and relaxed atmosphere. Upon arrival, you'll have time to explore its enchanting medina, browse artisanal shops, and soak in the serene beauty of this mountain retreat.

DAY 4 Chefchaouen Free Day

Today is yours to enjoy Chefchaouen at your own pace. Whether you choose to sip mint tea in a rooftop café overlooking the town, explore quiet alleyways with your camera in hand, or hike in the surrounding Rif Mountains, the day offers pure tranquility. For a deeper cultural experience, you might consider visiting a local hammam or taking a short walk to Ras El Ma, a peaceful spring just outside the medina.

DAY 5 Chefchaouen to Fez

Leave the cool blue tones of Chefchaouen behind as you travel to Fez, one of Morocco's most ancient imperial cities. Along the way, witness the change in scenery from mountain landscapes to rolling plains. Once in Fez, you'll dive into its rich heritage with a visit to the famous tanneries, where leather is still processed using age-old techniques. Later, take your first steps into the labyrinthine Medina, a UNESCO World Heritage Site filled with history and life at every turn.

DAY 6 Fez City Tour

A stop at a traditional pottery workshop gives insight into Fez's enduring craftsmanship.

DAY 7 Fez to Merzouga (Sahara Desert)

Today is an unforgettable journey south toward the golden dunes of the Sahara Desert. You'll travel through the Middle Atlas Mountains, stopping in the cedar forests near Azrou where wild monkeys roam freely. Continuing through Midelt and the Ziz Valley, arrive in Merzouga by afternoon. As the sun begins to set, ride camels into the desert and experience the surreal tranquility of the dunes. Your night will be spent in a luxury desert camp, complete with Berber music, hearty food, and stargazing beneath the vast desert sky.

En route, enjoy the ever-changing desert landscapes and oasis towns. Upon arrival at Todra, marvel at the towering canyon walls that rise up to 300 meters high, creating a dramatic natural corridor. Spend the evening relaxing in this serene setting nestled between rugged cliffs.

DAY 9 Todra Gorges to Ait Ben Haddou

After breakfast, travel further west to Ait Ben Haddou, a striking ksar (fortified village) recognized by UNESCO for its historical and cultural importance.
