Detailed Day-by-Day Itinerary

DAY 1	Arrival in Tangier – Chefchaouen
Your journey begins in Tangier, your driver will pick you up from your accommodation, the airport, or the port in Tangier with a private pickup from your accommodation, airport, or port. Known as “the Bride of the North,” the city lies in the northwest where the Mediterranean meets the Atlantic near Cape Spartel. You will begin by exploring the city, including the Hercules Caves and Cape Spartel. You'll have free time for lunch. In the afternoon, you drive inland to Chefchaouen via Tetouan and the Rif Mountains, with stops for panoramic views. Overnight in a hotel in Chefchaouen.
DAY 2	Chefchaouen – Roman ruins of Volubilis – Meknes – Fes
After breakfast, enjoy free time to wander the blue-washed alleys of Chefchaouen. Next, you drive to Volubilis, a UNESCO World Heritage Site renowned for its well-preserved mosaics, columns, and arches. After exploring the ruins, you drive about 30 km to Meknes, the Ismaili capital and one of Morocco's imperial cities, to visit Bab al-Mansour, the Sahrij Souani basin, the Royal Stables and granaries, and the Mausoleum of Moulay Ismail. Next, you continue to Fes. Overnight in a riad.
DAY 3	Guided sightseeing in Fes
Your driver will pick you up from your Riad in Fes after breakfast to begin your immersive exploration of one of Morocco's most iconic imperial cities — Fes, the country's cultural and spiritual heart. Your journey starts with a driving tour. First, you'll stop at the magnificent Royal Palace Gate, followed by a visit to “The Mellah”, the historic Jewish Quarter. Next, enjoy breathtaking views from the Borj Sud fortress, offering a stunning overlook of the ancient medina. The final stop of this portion is the Ceramic Village & School, where you'll witness traditional craftsmanship in action. Next, a walking tour, step back in time as you enter the medieval medina, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the best-preserved historic towns in the Arab world. Accompanied by a knowledgeable local guide, you'll explore highlights such as the Al Attarine Madrasa, the University and Mosque of Al Quaraouiyyine — considered the oldest existing university in the world — and the colorful Chouara Tanneries, where leather is dyed using centuries-old methods. After this unforgettable journey through history, you'll be returned to your riad to Relax
DAY 4	Fes – Ifrane – Cedar Forest – Midelt – Ziz Valley – Merzouga Sahara
After breakfast, the 7-day Sahara Morocco tour continues south through Imouzzer to visit Ifrane, famous for its cool climate, winter snow, and alpine-style houses—hence the nickname “the Switzerland of Morocco.” Next, you continue to the Cedar Forest, home to wild Barbary macaques; enjoy a short walk among the ancient trees. Later, you continue to Midelt for free time at lunch, next drive over the Tizi n'Talghamt Pass and along the Ziz Valley, with stops for panoramic views. In the afternoon, you reach the Sahara desert of Merzouga, where you switch to camels and cross the dunes, pausing atop a high dune to enjoy the sunset. Continue to your desert camp—a blend of traditional nomad tents and modern comforts—where you can enjoy Berber drumming around the campfire beneath a vast, star-filled sky. Overnight at a desert camp.

Explore Merzouga region – Nomads – Khamlia – Merzouga Lake – Erg Chebbi – Palm Grove

After breakfast, you dedicate the day to exploring the Merzouga region—sand dunes, a seasonal lake, mines, fossil areas, and palm oases—ideal for a range of outdoor activities. You start with an off-road drive to an old kohl (eyeliner) mine, next visit nomad families in their woven tents and learn about their way of life over a glass of Berber tea. Next, you continue to Khamlia to enjoy Gnawa music and dance performances; many villagers trace their heritage to Mali, Sudan, and Niger. After free time for lunch, stroll through a palm grove, next drive a few kilometers to see Merzouga's seasonal lake (often home to flamingos). Return to Merzouga. Dinner and overnight in a hotel.

Merzouga Sahara – Rissani – Erfoud – Todra Gorges – Dades Valley

Rise early to watch the sunrise over the dunes—it's a must. After breakfast, you leave the desert for Rissani, the former capital of Tafilalet and a major trading center with a lively souk on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Sundays. Continue to Erfoud to visit a fossilized marble workshop. Next, you drive through the palm groves of Touroug and Tinjdad to reach the Todra Gorges, where the river has carved a spectacular canyon with towering red cliffs popular with rock climbers. Enjoy free time to wander the gorge and have lunch. In the afternoon, continue to the Dades Valley via Boumalne Dades, stopping at the “Monkey Fingers” rock formations and a scenic viewpoint over the valley. Dinner and overnight in a hotel.

Dades Valley – Roses Valley – Palm Groves of Skoura – Ouarzazate – Ait Ben Haddou – High Atlas – Marrakech

After breakfast, you continue our 7-day Sahara Morocco tour from Tangier to Kelaat M'Gouna to visit the Valley of Roses. Each May, the Rose Festival showcases local products—rose water, essential oils, and cosmetics. Next, you drive through the palm groves of Skoura. Next, you reach Ouarzazate to tour the film studios. You continue to the famous Kasbah of Ait Ben Haddou, a UNESCO-listed fortified village featured in films such as Gladiator, Alexander, and The Mummy, as well as the series Game of Thrones. Cross the High Atlas Mountains via the Tizi n'Tichka Pass, with stops for lunch and photos. Finally, you drop you at your accommodation (riad) in Marrakech. End of the One-Week in Morocco.
