DETAILED PROGRAM ITINERARY

DAY 1

Marrakech – Berber Villages – High Atlas Mountains – Kasbah Ait Ben Haddou – Roses Valley – Dades Gorge :

Setti Fatma village: The first stop on your tour is the picturesque village of Setti Fatma, located in the Ourika valley. This authentic Berber village is famous for its seven waterfalls and hiking trails. You'll have the opportunity to visit a traditional Berber house, where you'll learn about the local way of life and taste mint tea. Hike to the Cascades : Next, you'll embark on a moderate hike to the Setti Fatma waterfalls. This trail takes you through breathtaking scenery, with natural pools where you can cool off. The hike also offers the chance to observe local wildlife and enjoy the tranquility of nature. Lunch by the river: After the hike, you'll enjoy a traditional Moroccan lunch at a local restaurant on the banks of the Ourika River. The typical menu includes dishes such as tajine, couscous, Moroccan salads and fresh fruit, all accompanied by mint tea. Visit to an Argan cooperative: In the afternoon, you'll visit an argan cooperative where you'll learn about the process of making argan oil, often dubbed Morocco's liquid gold. You'll also have the opportunity to taste and buy handcrafted argan products. Jardin Bio-Aromatique de l'Ourika: Your next stop is the Jardin Bio-Aromatique de l'Ourika, an area dedicated to the cultivation of medicinal and aromatic plants. A guided walk will enable you to learn more about the various plants and their use in traditional medicine. Wildlife observation: To round off the day, you'll explore a nature reserve in the valley, where you can observe local wildlife, including Atlas monkeys and a variety of birds. A specialist guide will provide detailed information on the species and ecosystems of the region. Return to Marrakech: In the late afternoon, you'll head back to Marrakech with unforgettable memories of a day rich in natural and cultural discoveries.
